MARCH OF REMEMBRANCE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Multiple scholarships are available to students who write an essay that must capture the essence of post-Holocaust reconciliation and healing, exploring corrective measures for the future, especially in light of the current rise of modern-day antisemitism. Submissions are due on April 1st and winners will be revealed at the March of Remembrance event at SMU on April 7th at 2:00pm. Winners must be present to receive their award.

SUBMIT APPLICATION: MORDALLAS.ORG

“This scholarship not only allowed me to continue pursuing my education and professional goals, but it deeply impacted me by providing me with a different perspective on how the residual effects of the Holocaust carry on for generations, and how even then, those effected are willing to forgive.”

- 2022 Recipient, Alex Stirewalt
